

If

Words by RUTH BERRY

Music by DON BERRY

The piano introduction consists of two staves in 4/4 time. The right hand plays a series of chords, starting with a G major triad and moving through several other chords. The left hand plays a simple bass line with quarter notes.

Had I a thou-sand voi - ces, full rich with sil - ver phras - e, Each one would be re-

The vocal line begins with a G4 note on the word 'Had'. The piano accompaniment continues with chords and a bass line.

call - ing my glad corn - husk - er days; And if some ear should list, as my

The vocal line continues with a G4 note on 'call' and a G4 note on 'And'. The piano accompaniment continues with chords and a bass line.

song is float - ing by, 'Twould hear the thrill - ing ech - o of U. U. U. N. I.

The vocal line ends with a G4 note on 'I'. The piano accompaniment concludes with a final chord and a bass line.